

About Consignments

In recent years we have seen a rise in interest in American Indian artifacts. Sales have remained steady, even in our sometimes-wavering economy, and the pursuit for Indian items by the interested public and private collectors has increased. Sales of Indian items in almost all categories are still strong. If you are considering selling your Indian items, now is the time!

Our auctions are a proven way to put the buyers and the sellers together. Our printed catalogs are not only beautiful and informative, but are continually used as reference guides throughout the world. We enjoy a sterling business reputation and have a proven track record of great American Indian auctions. And we sell over 10,000 Indian items each year!

Our buyers come from all over the world, and with the addition of Live Internet bidding to our business, we are constantly making our auction material more accessible to our buyers as well as the general public. We encourage absentee bidding and our affiliation with LiveAuctioneers.com and iCollector.com has given us great global exposure. We have the proven ways to get your items into our customers' hands.
